ORDER

Honeywell International, Inc. (“Honeywell”), joined by Ford Motor Company (“Ford”), have moved pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 107 and the common law for access to asbestos claimants’ Rule 2019 Exhibits. The Rule 2019 Exhibits are filed off the docket with the Court.

For the reasons explained in the accompanying Opinion Re Motion of Honeywell International Inc. for Access to Rule 2019 Exhibits, Honeywell’s and Ford’s motions are granted subject to the following restrictions:

1. The Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court is hereby authorized and directed to grant Honeywell and Ford access to, and permit Honeywell and Ford to inspect and copy, any Rule 2019 Exhibit submitted to the Clerk in the Delaware Bankruptcy Cases pursuant to the Rule 2019 Orders, with the exception of the Retention Agreements, including any exemplars thereof. Honeywell and Ford may, at their own election and expense, select a third-party copy vendor acceptable to NARCO TAC to copy such Rule 2019 Exhibits and exclude from such copies all Retention Agreements. To the extent such Retention Agreements are inadvertently provided to Honeywell and Ford, they shall not review such Retention Agreements, shall promptly destroy such Retention Agreements, and shall not provide them to any other person or entity or use them for any purpose whatsoever.

2. This Order authorizes Honeywell and Ford to use such Rule 2019 Exhibits solely in connection with the fraud investigation and share aggregated information contained therein with NARCO Trust on a confidential basis. Neither the Rule 2019 Exhibits nor the information contained therein may be used for any other purpose.

3. Honeywell and Ford shall not disclose to NARCO Trust the information contained in any Rule 2019 Exhibits except in an aggregate format that does not identify any individually represented person.

4. Honeywell and Ford shall comply with the terms of the Order Establishing the Protocol for Production of 2019 Exhibits, In re W.R. Grace & Co., Case No. 01-01139 (Bankr. D. Del. April 9, 2013). Such compliance includes destruction of the Rule 2019 Exhibits at the conclusion of the work or three months, whichever is soon, and the filing of the affidavit required by the Protocol Order ¶ 44.

5. The parties, Honeywell, Ford and NARCO TAC, shall submit to the Court the name or names of the person (other than the name the NARCO TAC previously suggested) they believe is appropriate to serve as a facilitator in the review and gathering of the Rule 2019 Exhibits. The facilitator shall be responsible for reviewing the Rule 2019 Exhibits and removing the retention agreements and all but the last four digits of social security numbers.

6. Honeywell and Ford shall bear the cost of the facilitator and copying of the Rule 2019 Exhibits.

7. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Order reopens any closed Delaware Bankruptcy Cases, deems any such cases re-opened, or requires the re-opening of any such cases.
